

Conference: Eradicate Cancer 2018 – Can Advanced Immunotherapy Make It Possible?

Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre

Free public cancer forum within the conference

“Turning Fear into Hope: The power of anti-cancer immunotherapy to restore a healthy lifestyle”.

Thurs 15th March 5pm to 6:30pm

Program:

17:00-18:30	FREE PUBLIC FORUM Turning fear into hope: the power of anti-cancer immunotherapy to restore a healthy life style Co-presented by the Eradicate Cancer with Immunotherapy Conference and the Melbourne Immunotherapy Network (MIN) Convenor - Grant McArthur, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre Co-convenor - Alan Trounson Cartherics and the Hudson Institute for Medical Research
17:00	Introduction
17:15	Eradicate Cancer Conference - Challenging the master disease Development of dual specific CAR-T cells – a one-two anti-cancer punch. Richard Boyd, Cartherics Conference chair
17:20	Unblocking immune inhibitors – boosting responses to cancer and HIV Sharon Lewin, Doherty Institute for Medical Research
17:30	Are T cell immunotherapies going to revolutionise the battle to eradicate cancer? Cassian Yee, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Centre
17:40	“Fireside chat” the holistic value of immunotherapy success: Jarryd Roughead – a great survival story; Grant McArthur his doc. Followed by a panel discussion and questions from the audience. Grant McArthur (Moderator), Miles Prince, Sharon Lewin, Cassian Yee, Alan Trounson, Rebecca Delconte.
18:30-19:45	Informal Networking Reception and Poster Session